BITTER COLD DUE TO CONTINUE

Two Trustees Appointed for Hospital Here

Don Murdock Named For 6 Years, Thomas Parrett for Four

Donald R. Murdock of Washington C. H., a certified public accountant, and Thomas H. Parrett, who resides on the Sedalia Rd., near Bloomingburg, a former county commissioner, were appointed Monday as new members of the board of trustees of Fayette County Memorial Hospital for terms beginning March 1.

The appointments were made at a joint meeting of the three county commissioners and Common Pleas Judge John P. Case and Probate Judge Robert L. Brubaker, who under the present county hospital law, act with the commissioners in naming the trustees.

Murdock was appointed for a six-year term ending March 1, 1964, and Parrett for a four-year term ending in March 1962.

The terms are staggered so as to make all future six-year terms of trustee board membership end at periods whereby one appointment to the six member board will fall due each year. This is in line with a recommendation made by a state inspector representing the Ohio Bureau of Public Accounting.

TERMS EXPIRING in March this year are those of George Campbell, who was named when the first trustees were appointed and Mrs. Fern Chaffin, who is completing her six-year term.

The commissioners and judges instructed that letters of appreciation for service rendered, be sent to the two outgoing trustees.

During the meeting of the commissioners Monday morning, it was decided that final details regarding awarding the contract for the Camp Run and Persinger ditch improvements in Jasper Township, would be worked out sometime during the afternoon. Details for the small bond issue required for the contract also are to be completed then.

The bonds will cover cost of the ditch work and will be paid off with assessments made against land owners benefited by the improvement.

Koreans Admit ROK Airliner Flees North

SEOUL — Pyongyang radio admitted today a South Korean airliner with two Americans and 30 other aboard flew to Communist North Korea Sunday.

A broadcast from the North Korean capital asserted the plane fled to North Korea in protest against "the Syngman Rhee government's war policy."

It was believed one or more Communists boarded the twin-engine plane and forced the American pilots to fly north. Korean Airlines charged the plane's passengers were kidnapped.

The U.N. Command will meet the Communists Tuesday and demand the return of the plane.

The Pyongyang broadcast gave no details of the plane, its passengers or where it landed. It said only that the plane landed at a North Korean airport at 2 p.m.

The U. N. Command said the plane was tracked by radar north of the truce line before it vanished Sunday.

The pilot was Willis P. Hobbs, Vallejo, Calif., an American civilian who has worked for KNA for about two months. His wife and two young daughters live in Hong Kong.

A U. S. Air Force officer, Lt. Col. Howard W. McClellan, Buchanan, Mich., was acting as copilot. AU. N. spokesman said American officers often fly with the line to earn extra pay.

Gas Explosion Kills 5 in Indiana Family

EVANSVILLE, Ind. —An explosion in zero weather destroyed a frame home here early today.

Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Oglesby, a daughter, Mrs. Oglesby's brother and her mother were killed. Two Oglesby sons were injured.

Firemen said they believed the furnace in the home exploded. It had been converted to gas from coal recently.

Out in Space—No Whistling?

Airman Completes 7-Day Simulated Trip to Moon

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. — Airman Donald G. Farrell completed seven days in a make-believe space ship Sunday and came out saying "I believe anyone could have done the same thing."

Scientists at the school of aviation medicine at Randolph Air Force Base jubilantly agreed that the 23-year-old native of the Bronx, N.Y., had just proved that man is ready for space flight.

"There was one strange sensation," Farrell said after a solid week in a hermetically sealed tank that represented the cabin of a space ship.

"I couldn't whistle." Other than that the calm volunteer reported few physical or mental discomforts on being locked in the tanklike experimental space cabin. He could not see or hear what was going on outside.

He did not think the clustered researchers could hear him. However, it was revealed during the tests that he could be heard by special microphone that was recording his report on paper.

Only by checking his watch and marking a calendar was he able to tell if it was day or night.

"I didn't feel in the true sense that I was on a space ship," he said. "I realized that I was on the ground at all times. There was no fear such as there might be in a real space ship. Other than that it simulated a real space ship flight."

Space test experts explained that Farrell's nonwhistling ability stemmed from the fact that a simulated 18,000-foot altitude was maintained in the space chamber.

Farrell's other comments on the test included: "I lost four pounds—but I could afford to lose four pounds. I only weigh 181 now. 'At no time did I get bored. 'I was kept busy enough that there was no thought of personal discomfort."

"I kept a diary and put in everything that transpired. 'I got a little bit tired. 'Really and truly, I could like to make a trip to the moon."

Back home in the Bronx, his parents were pleased that he came out grinning. "Wonderful news," said Mr. and Mrs. James A. Farrell.

Farrell crawled into the 3-by-5-foot cabin with no more fuss than a Sunday motorist getting into the family car. He emerged in almost the same fashion. His eyes looked red as if strained by two glaring

Madison Mills Reserves Victorious

Jeff and Bloomingburg Win Tournament Games

Fayette County's basketball tournament moved back into more predictable channels Saturday night, with Bloomingburg and Jeffersville—top teams in the regular season—emerging as easy victors.

The Bulldogs chewed up the Madison Mills Warriors, 71-55, in a loser's bracket game, and gave the Warriors the dubious distinction of being the first team eliminated from the double-elimination fray.

Jeff's Tigers, unabashed by Wayne's hackle-raising upset over Bloomingburg Thursday, smashed the Mad Manthony, 67-48.

Jeff's varsity, thus, gets to take a night off Wednesday, while Bloomingburg and Wayne battle for the honor of going into the finals.

Ike Urging 'Normal Channel' Work To Plan Summit Parley

WASHINGTON — President Eisenhower in a new letter to Soviet Premier Bulganin has suggested that both sides work through "normal channels" for an eventual East-West summit conference. He described present efforts as at an "impasse."

In what was in effect a reply to Bulganin's criticism of Secretary of State Dulles, Eisenhower said any preparatory work "would, as far as the United States was concerned, require the participation of our Secretary of State."

The White House made public today the text of Eisenhower's six-page reply to letters from Bulganin. It was sent to Moscow Saturday.

Eisenhower expressed "considerable puzzlement" in view of Bulganin's proposals as to "what you think another such summit meeting could contribute to a genuine settlement of our problems."

He accused Bulganin of demanding "the right to veto discussion" of the proposals Eisenhower believes vital to international peace.

EISENHOWER said he came to this conclusion because Bulganin has "proposed and insisted on" discussing ten topics. Eisenhower in turn suggested discussing eight other problems to which Bulganin has objected.

Hagerty also announced Eisenhower receipt of an "encouraging" report dealing with the nation's domestic economy and prospects for ending the business recession.

The report, sent to the President by Director Albert M. Cole of the Housing and Home Finance Agency, says there was "a rather sharp increase in January in the rate at which builders have been making applications for home mortgage insurance commitments."

Hagerty said Cole regards the increase as one piece of evidence the general economic picture may brighten soon. The press secretary said, Eisenhower tagged the study "an encouraging sign."

Four boys broke into double figure scoring for Bloomingburg and three did it for the hapless Warriors. Bloomingburg's Bob Riley led scoring for the winners, with five field goals and eight free throws for 18 points.

Teammates Ken Anderson and Mike Evans both led Riley in the field goal column, with seven and six, but their success at the foul line held their totals only to 16 and 13. Buddy Snyder was the fourth in the double-figure quarter with 11.

Population of U. S. Up 3 Million in Year

WASHINGTON — The population of the United States was about 172,790,000 as of the first of the year.

This estimate, reported by the Census Bureau, was about three million bigger than the previous year and represented a rise of more than 22 million since the last general census in 1950.

The bureau said both births and deaths in 1957 reached record totals for any year in U. S. history.

U. S., Britain To Mediate Tunisian Fuss

Big Nations Hoping To Prevent Debate Before U. N. Council

PARIS — France and Tunisia today accepted the good offices of the United States and Britain to settle the French-Tunisian crisis.

The American and British offers were made to French Foreign Minister Christian Pineau this morning by British Ambassador Sir Gladwyn Jebb and U. S. Ambassador Amory Houghton.

The offer was made and accepted after Tunisian President Habib Bourguiba announced in Tunis that he had ordered a new demand be made to the U. N. Security Council for an investigation of the Algerian rebellion.

Bourguiba said he had cabled his U. N. delegate, Mongi Slim, to put the new demand before the Council as an expansion of Tunisia's previous protest against French air attack Feb. 8 on the village of Sakiet Sidi Youssef.

THE COUNCIL is scheduled to debate the first Tunisian complaint on Tuesday. The British-American offer was designed to avert this debate, which the West feels would give the Communists a new chance for propaganda attacks.

The United States and Britain hope that Tunisia and France will tell the Council they had already arranged for efforts to solve their dispute, a device which usually cuts off Council debate before it starts.

Bourguiba said he had enlarged his demand because France had countered his first protest to the U. N. with a demand for a U. N. investigation of Algerian rebel operations from Tunisian sanctuaries.

The French contended they bombed Sakiet Sidi Youssef because rebels were concentrated there. The Tunisians claim 79 persons, including women and children, were killed.

Western sources termed the new Tunisian move "highly embarrassing." They feared it would give the Communists a new platform from which to attack the West.

The American Embassy said Bourguiba's action had made U. N. conciliation efforts more difficult. "It is time for the whole free world to take a stand on Algeria," the Tunisian president said. "One can no longer continue the fiction that it is only an affair for France."

"They (the French) have charged that the fellagha (rebels) operate from Tunisia. Now I want the world to see and discuss what has made these fellagha, why there are fellagha and why they fight?"

The Asian-Arab group of nations has brought the Algerian rebellion before the General Assembly three times but it has not been before the Security Council before. France has previously rejected all U. N. intervention, contending that her North African territory is her domestic concern.

Coldest Day of Winter

Mercury Hits 4 Below And 4 Schools Closed

The cold wave that has gripped Fayette County for the last 12 days sent the mercury to 4 below zero Sunday night and closed four rural schools in Fayette County Monday.

Monday was not only the coldest day of the winter to date, but also the 12th in row in which the temperature has not gone above freezing—even for a little while.

Schools at Milledgeville, Bookwalter and Bloomingburg were closed Monday because they could not be heated up sufficiently after the weekend. The one at Marion also was closed, because of its connection with the Bloomingburg school. (Pupils from the Bloomingburg district attend the Marion School.)

Supt. W. W. Boyer said it is virtually certain that three of the four schools—Bloomingburg, Marion and Bookwalter—will reopen Tuesday with normal temperature in the classrooms and that the one at Milledgeville "probably" will reopen.

The question mark on the Milledgeville School stems from some sort of trouble with the heating system, which was being investigated with a view to quick repairs Monday.

The other three schools just could not be warmed up sufficiently Monday after the heating systems had been permitted to drop to lower temperatures during the weekend. The Milledgeville school furnace is a combination of oil and gas; those at Bookwalter and Marion are oil and the one at Bloomingburg is fired with coal.

Closing of the four schools gave 884 youngsters and 30 teachers an unexpected holiday: Jasper 210 pupils and six teachers; Bookwalter 174 and five; Bloomingburg 390 and 16 and Marion 90 and three.

THE COLD wave which moved in on the county on Feb. 7 has been consistently below freezing with these high and low temperatures: Feb. 7—34 and 23; Feb. 8—24 and 8; Feb. 9—17 and 3; Feb. 10—20 and 1; Feb. 11—22 and 4; Feb. 12—17 and 2; Feb. 12—23 and 6; Feb. 13—25 and 10; Feb. 14—32 and 21; Feb. 15—22 and 6; Feb. 16—22 and 4 and Feb. 17 4 below zero early in the morning.

The weather forecast offers little encouragement for shivering people of the community. In a nutshell it is as follows:

With the cold weather has come light snow, which has packed on many of the side streets of the city and byways of the county, making driving hazardous. Several accidents, none very serious, have been blamed on slippery going.

Although streams of the county are frozen across solidly, except at the riffles, few people have braved the biting cold to go skating.

Some Unusual Happenings Developed by Weatherman

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The current frigid weather is producing some unusual happenings. Witness:

The editor of the Old Farmers Almanac, which is widely considered a safe weather forecaster, was scheduled to speak in York, Me., Sunday night. Sponsors had let editor Robb Sagendorph pick the date on the assumption that he would choose a nice night. The speech was canceled because of a blizzard.

When Mrs. Oscar Dancy went into labor at her home on top of Montana Mountain, N. J., during the height of the snowstorm, state police sent a snowplow to clear the road to her house. The snowplow got stuck.

Lebanon, N. H., recorded 58 inches of snow on the ground while Boston and Caribou, Maine, reported depths of 19 and 32 inches, respectively.

In Boston, a 37-year-old record was swept from the books last night when 17 inches were measured. The City Weather Bureau spoke of "the wildest coastal storm of the winter." The old mark, a 24-hour snowfall of 16½ inches, set in 1921.

AT LEAST 11 Connecticut communities declared states of emergency and similar steps were ordered in other New England states, New York and Pennsylvania. The big problem was drifts—some as high as a two-story building blocked highways and isolated entire towns.

The storm death toll by states included: Alabama 6; Connecticut 8; Colorado 5; District of Columbia 3; Illinois 2; Iowa 4; Maine 1; Maryland 11; Massachusetts 6; Michigan 6; Missouri 3; New Hampshire 3; New Jersey 12; New York 13; North Carolina 6; Ohio 8; Pennsylvania 17; Rhode Island 1; South Carolina 3; Tennessee 6; Virginia 4; West Virginia 7; Kentucky 3 and Wisconsin 2.

Among the causes of death were accidents on roads, exertion from shoveling snow, trying to jockey cars from drifts and exposure.

5-Day Forecast For Ohio Hints More Misery

Sub-Zero Temperatures Set Records in Both Cincinnati, Columbus

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Ohio appears to be in for its most severe stretch of bitter weather of the winter. Here is the forecast for the next five days:

"Temperatures will average 14-18 degrees below normal. Normal high 37 north, 44 south; normal low 21-25. Temperatures will remain well below normal throughout the week with occasional light snow flurries over most of state."

Early today, the U. S. Weather Bureau reported lows of 10 degrees below zero in Ashland and Akron, making them the coldest spots in Ohio.

The "warmest" spot in the state was Chesapeake in Lawrence County where the reading was an even zero.

Other temperatures reported were Toledo, 9 below; Findlay and Zanesville, 7 below; Cleveland, 6 below; Cincinnati, 4 below; and Columbus 2 below.

A STIFF, 30 mile-an-hour wind blowing off Lake Erie caused considerable drifting of a four-inch accumulation of snow in the Cleveland area. Prediction were for more snow today.

At least nine storm deaths, including six in traffic accidents, were reported since snow began falling in Ohio Friday.

Three deaths falling in the miscellaneous category claimed a couple and their infant son. The three were asphyxiated by carbon monoxide fumes from an improperly vented gas heater.

Passing lanes of the Ohio Turnpike were snow-covered and the safe speed limit on the toll road was reduced to 40 m.p.h.

Eastbound flights of three airlines out of Cleveland Hopkins Airport were cancelled Sunday night because of runway conditions in New York, Philadelphia and Washington. About 130 airline passengers—mostly coast-to-coast nonstop passengers—were stranded east of Cleveland.

Trains and buses from the east ran as much as two hours late into Cleveland.

Skies were generally clear over the rest of the state, but lows ranging from 5 below zero to 8 above were predicted.

THE STATE highway patrol reported that most of the state's highways were slippery, especially in the northeastern sector.

The 4 below zero in Cincinnati made today the coldest Feb. 17 in the Queen City in 55 years. The Columbus mark of three below was the coldest Feb. 17 there in 73 years.

Another death was attributed to the weather from non-traffic causes. A 68-year-old Elyria man died

Woman, 41, Freezes in Freak Mishap

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP)—A woman using a ladder to reach her second-story bedroom window, froze to death today when she slipped and became wedged between the roof and an overhang.

The body of Mrs. Robbie Lee Keith, 41, was discovered by her landlady, Mrs. Lois Noel. She told police she had the only key to the house and that Mrs. Keith often used the ladder to gain entry.

It was three below zero, police said, when Mrs. Keith climbed a ladder and reached the peaked roof of a bathroom addition directly below the bedroom window.

She slipped and slid down the roof, her legs wedged between the roof and a short projection extending over the back door to the cottage.

Her shoes had fallen off and she was not wearing a coat, hat or gloves. A sack of hamburgers and coffee were found on the ground.

Mrs. Noel said she discovered the body when she went outside and saw Mrs. Keith's feet.

Court Dismisses Assault Charge; Fines Complainant

An assault charge against Virginia Johnson, 32, of Route 6, was dismissed after hearing before Judge Max G. Dice in Municipal Court Monday.

Affidavit was signed by Edith Snyder of 1115 Golf View Dr., and resulted out of an incident at Red's Drive-In, Route 35, south.

Mrs. Snyder was fined $5 and costs at the same session for using profane language.

He ducked out of the cabin and stretched to his full six-foot height for the first time in a week. Only by shifting scientific equipment that almost filled the cabin was Farrell able to partially lie down for his 4½-hour sleeping periods.

"I believe I was afforded ample space for the duties performed," he said.

He said he had plenty to eat and ate everything put inside the cabin "from Vienna sausage to quails eggs."

"The eggs were boiled and caressed," he said. "I think maybe someone intended them for a surprise but they were quite good."

"This airman not only knows how to ride a space ship but he knows how to hold a press conference," said Senate Majority Leader Lyndon B. Johnson, who made a special trip here just to greet Farrell.

Unemployment Worries O'Neill

Special Study Panel Planned by Governor

COLUMBUS (AP)—Unemployment in Ohio is causing Gov. C. William O'Neill the most concern during his recovery from a recent heart attack.

The governor told a news conference today that he has named an administration committee to attack the problem and will appoint a commission of outstanding Ohioans to help.

He said he expected reports on unemployment, welfare and other problems by the first week in March when "I expect to be back at the office full time."

O'Neill discussed the problem at his first news conference since stricken Jan. 22.

He received a score of newsmen in the dining room of the mansion. It was the governor's first trip downstairs since the illness which kept him abed until last week. The governor said his half-hour periods out of bed have been lengthened and that physicians assured him that if he followed their advice now he would be "good as new" later.

O'Neill said he still feels a special session of the legislature is not needed at this time to deal with unemployment, welfare or other state problems. He said his administration committee, composed of cabinet members, would report on the adequacy of public works programs also. He expressed the hope that federal funds would be advanced to speed highway building in Ohio because that would help ease unemployment.

O'Neill said he expects to conduct as active a campaign for reelection as he made in seeking the governorship two years ago.

Previous reports indicated that the governor planned to campaign on a reduced scale because of his illness.

Bitter Cold

There were four inches of snow on the ground in the Cleveland-Youngstown - Akron-Canton area and about two over the rest of the state. Toledo had six inches of accumulated snow but little prospect for more immediately.

Two high school students, accustomed to being able to drive three miles across frozen Lake Erie from their Put-In-Bay homes to the mainland, were unpleasantly surprised Saturday night.

Charles Duggan, 17, and Sharon Lunt, 16, were pulled from the icy waters of the lake when the jolly went through the ice about half a mile from Put-In-Bay.

Automobile battery suppliers did a land-office business as winter-weary batteries by the thousands quietly laid down and died.

A number of schools in the more frigid parts of the state decided the game wasn't worth the candle and told their youngsters to take the day off.

All highways are open, but driving is hazardous in northern Ohio. The north of a line through Van Wert, Kenton, Bucyrus, Mansfield, Wooster, Canton and Youngstown, there is four to six inches of snow on the ground and it is drifting.

Schools were closed in such widely separated places as the Upper Sandusky area, Jefferson, Portage, Medina, Hamilton and Toledo areas.

Freezing was reported on the Ohio River in the Cincinnati area, but barge traffic still was moving in that vital waterway. Ice was not thick enough to hamper navigation yet. Unofficial readings in the Cincinnati suburban area ranged down to 10-below.

U. S. Airforce Goofs.

NAHA, Okinawa (AP)—The U. S. Air Force got its signals crossed and put Okinawa under a false air defense alert today.

The 5th Air Force said an alert signaled by a training group in the Pacific was mistakenly transmitted to Okinawa and the island went on "yellow alert"—an air raid is probable.

Police ran for air raid shelters, anti-aircraft crews went on duty.

Deaths and Funerals

Dr. Howard L. Stitt Dies in Cincinnati

Dr. Howard L. Stitt, 73, of Cincinnati who was born in Bloomington and went on to become widely known as a ear, nose and throat specialist, died in a Cincinnati hospital last Saturday night.

He had been in failing health for some time.

Dr. Stitt, whose father, J. Y. Stitt, had a drug store in Bloomington for many years, was graduated from Ohio Northern University as a pharmacist when he was 19 years old. However, he had set his sights on a medical profession and was graduated from the University of Cincinnati medical college and then, in 1923, took post-graduate work in Europe.

He started practice as a physician in Washington C. H., but after 10 years went to Cincinnati to specialize in ear, nose and throat ailments, as both a physician and surgeon.

He was an accomplished violinist and, as a hobby, made several violins. Mrs. Stitt, the former Margaret McClure of Washington C. H. who survives him, was an accomplished pianist.

In addition to his wife, he is survived by a daughter, Mrs. John F. Hellesbush and a son, Howard M. Stitt, both of Cincinnati. He also leaves a sister, Mrs. William Hoyer who lives in New Jersey.

Relatives here said they understood he had been in his usual health and had walked to the store only a short distance from his home when he was stricken. They said they presumed his death was due to a heart attack, but added that the medical examiner's report had not yet been received.

He is survived by his wife, Nina Haines Binegar; a son, Halden Binegar of El Paso, who was visiting with his parents at the time; a daughter, Mrs. Wanda Rogers of Baltimore, Ohio; a sister, Mrs. Velma Bowers of Washington, D. C.; a brother, Waldo Binegar of Jeffersonville, and six grandchildren.

Services will be held at 1:30 p. m. Thursday at the Weaver Funeral Home, 1029 N. Main St., Dayton and burial will be in the White Oak Cemetery near Buena Vista following a short committal service. The Kirkpatrick Funeral Home here is in charge of the burial arrangements.

Friends may call at the funeral home in Dayton Wednesday.

U. S. Missile Bases In France Studied

PARIS (AP)—Gen. Lauris Norstad, NATO's European commander, said today that preliminary discussions have been started toward location of launching sites for U. S. intermediate-range missile in France.

Norstad told a news conference that his military experts are studying the military implications of various plans for a pullback by Soviet and Western troops from central Europe, but any such plans which weakened the Western defenses without compensating assurances must be considered wholly unacceptable.

The general declined to say whether preliminary missile discussions also are underway with Italy and Germany.

Stock Mart Turnover Is Light Today

NEW YORK (AP)—Some tobacco and drug shares did well in an otherwise irregular stock market early this afternoon. Turnover was light.

Most key stocks showed fractional changes with an occasional loss running to a point or so. Among drugs and tobaccos the gains went to a point and more.

The market was moderately active at the start and prices were a bit lower than at Friday's close. Trading became very sluggish until mid-morning when there was some improvement.

Airlines and radio - televisions were generally higher. Steels, rails and nonferrous metals were mixed. Motors, farm implements and chemicals declined, the latter showing some good-sized losses. Oils were narrowly mixed with a downside tendency.

Additional news of cutbacks in production and price cuts in crude oil backgrounded the market.

Lorillard advanced well over a point. Philip Morris was ahead about a point and American Tobacco steadied after an early loss.

Scherer was another gainer in about the one-point range while Pfizer added a generous fraction.

Union Carbide and Allied Chemical were down about a point each and Du Pont's lost stretched beyond that. U. S. Steel, Bethlehem, Kennecott, Westinghouse Electric and Goodyear were up fractions. U. S. government bonds moved to the upside.

Foreign Aid Cost $70 Billion And That's Just a Start

Editor's Note: Following is the fifth in a series of articles in which a member of the Senate Finance Committee, Sen. John J. Williams of Delaware, tells why the federal treasury always is empty.

By DEANE and DAVID HELLER
Central Press Correspondents

WASHINGTON — Remember 'way back when, when we were sold a foreign aid program? Enthusiastic backers said it was just a helping hand until war-ravaged nations could get on their feet? Twelve years and $70 billion later, it now seems evident that foreign aid will be around longer than most of us will be alive.

One of the hottest debates in this session of Congress will be over how much foreign aid we'll give friendly (and many not-so-friendly) nations. The President has asked for $6.4 billion.

"What is the foreign aid story?" we asked Senator Williams.

"Foreign aid can be cut," he said. "In any program as big as that, there's bound to be water which closer control can squeeze out. It's not a question of being against foreign aid, but it doesn't seem unreasonable to ask our allies to postpone some of their projects, when, due to the budget squeeze, we're going to have to postpone many of our own."

"Tightening the belt—a rollback, seems to me to be the key on all of the subsidy programs," the senator said. "A good case can be made for many of them. Nobody wants to end things like the hot lunch programs for school children, for example."

"However, we should make a careful re-examination of each program, see how essential it is, and see if it can't be rolled back or if we can't save money by closer control."

Foreign aid needs such reexamination, Senator Williams said, pointing to a scathing report by the House of Representatives government operations committee on a "typical" foreign aid program—to oil-rich Iran.

During 1951-56, foreign aid to Iran, totaling more than a quarter billion dollars, was administered in such a "loose, slipshod and unbusinesslike manner" that "it is impossible to tell with any accuracy what became of the funds."

During the years of Iran's oil dispute, the program was "neither technical assistance nor economic development, but one method of keeping Iran's economy afloat."

The blistering report tells of impractical, useless and unfinished projects, poor planning and faulty engineering, unauthorized use of tax funds to send children of rich Iran citizens to college in the United States, stolen materials, pilferage and waste.

Amounts requested for American aid to Iran "seem to have been picked out of the air," with no study of Iranian needs, the ability of its economy to absorb such projects, or "the amount of American personnel available to expend the funds," the House committee report says.

"The conduct of the United States operations mission's affairs appears to have been based on the assumption that as long as U. S. aid funds were sent promptly it was not a matter of great consequence what they were spent for."

The committee noted that Iran is not a poor country and could easily repay U. S. loans, which are entirely feasible, but that the country prefers to receive aid which it doesn't have to pay back.

NOW OPEN FOR BUSINESS — KAHN'S WILMINGTON STOCK YARDS

Our new buying yards, located in the "Bennett Neighborhood" four miles east of Wilmington on State Route 3, is now open for business. Because of delays due to weather conditions, our facilities aren't yet complete; but we are in business, and hope you will forgive any inconvenience you may encounter during the early phase of our operation.

Actually, we don't regard ourselves as a newcomer in your community. After all, the food dealers of Clinton, Greene, Fayette and Highland counties have dealt with Kahn's for many years.

At our Wilmington yard, however, we will get a chance to know personally many of you folks who have helped us grow through the years by your continued purchases of our products.

Dave Spaeth, General Manager of Kahn's Wilmington yard, is looking forward to meeting you. Even if you have no livestock ready for market, why not drop in on him at the Stock Yards office . . . and get acquainted? There will always be hot coffee and dough nuts "on the house" . . . and television to watch if you're waiting for someone.

12 Ways You Will Benefit By Bringing Your Live Stock To Kahn's

1. No charges of any kind. No buying charges, no commission, no yardage.
2. Fair market prices.
3. No middleman profit. We will not re-sort and re-sell your livestock.
4. Unlimited demand for your livestock every day.
5. Prices maintained throughout the day, regardless of breaks in other markets.
6. The most liberal possible sort.
7. Top prices for hogs ranging from 180/210 pounds. We will also buy and give market price for all slaughter weights.
8. Weighing over inspected and tested scales.
9. Immediate payment by check issued on local area banks.
10. Convenient location.
11. Premium payments for meat type hogs, on the following basis:

Every day, we will pay market price for your hogs. If you and our buyer agree that you really have hogs that appear to be meat type, and these hogs range from 190 to 210 pounds or close to it, the hogs will, with your permission, be tattooed. They will be slaughtered and cut separately in Cincinnati (we invite you to come and see this operation). If your hogs qualify for meat type—that is, if 50% or more of the dressed weight of the hog is in the four main primal cuts (hams, pork loins, picnics and boston butts), and the hogs have an overall dressing percentage of 70% or better—you will be paid a premium.

12. Free Kahn's Common Stock Certificates. In addition to all of the above, Kahn's will issue you (free of any charge) one share of Kahn's Common Stock for every 100 hogs of slaughter weight you sell to us at our Wilmington yards. It will not be necessary to bring in 100 hogs at a time. We will simply accumulate hogs under your name, and as each 100 is reached, no matter how many shipments it takes within one year, you will receive absolutely free the one share of stock for each 100 hogs. The stock will be issued in the name of anyone you designate as long as he or she is a resident of Ohio.

You will continue to get one (1) share of stock for each 100 hogs you sell to us. For example, if you ship us 200 hogs in a year, you will get two (2) shares, 500 hogs, five (5) shares, 1,000 hogs, ten (10) shares, and so on.

Kahn's stock is registered on the Cincinnati Stock Exchange, and is presently selling for around $17.00. Its current book value is $29.00 per share. It is currently paying $1.00 per share dividend and has paid dividends each year since its issue in 1936. We hope you will keep the stock as an investment, but it may also be sold or used for collateral.

WHY ARE WE PROUD OUR SON HAS A NEWSPAPER ROUTE?

BECAUSE any parent is proud of their son when people point him out as an alert, reliable, young businessman, who is using his spare time every day to serve his neighborhood with its most popular newspaper.

We are glad, too, because such work enables him to earn so much of the money he needs for clothes, sports, hobbies, and fun—as well as build up a savings account that will help him go on to college. Also, because his route supplements his school studies so nicely with practical business experience.

MOST OF ALL, we are happy because his daily newspaper work is helping him to develop into a more manly, self-reliant and resourceful young fellow. And that's why we both are giving him every encouragement to make a success of this first business venture which means so much to his future.

Danger In Growing Demands For 'Benefits'

People everywhere in every area of this country will have to become more vigilant as to how their tax money is being spent, locally, state and nationally, if we are to avoid real financial trouble in the future.

Right now we are on the edge of what easily could become a recession and it cannot be entirely remedied by simply pouring more money into "benefits" for which so many eager groups are constantly beseeching our Congress, state legislatures and even our city councils and our county officials.

We must not encourage our legislative bodies to have government, nation a, state or even county, assume more of our personal burdens; that brings us closer to the day when the officials holding the purse strings will be stronger than our citizenship. Too much bureaucracy, which sustains itself by granting favors, easily can make self - government as we have known it, disappear.

Federal government, over many recent years and administrations, has allowed bureaucracy, with its dangerous lobbying influence on Congress and other officials, to become so powerful that it will take not one but many men of courage to reduce this power within reason.

Sixteen billion, four hundred million dollars of the administration's $73.9 billion budget for fiscal 1959 is for "benefits" of various kinds. A mere $2.5 billion is budgeted for general government. If there is to be any significant economizing it will have to come out of this $16.4 billion of "benefits."

The big rub is that once benefits are granted they apparently can never be cut back substantially. Big government is a one - way street because more and more people have an economic stake in keeping it big through special benefits.

A classic example is the Tennessee Valley Authority, a wholly owned government corporation created in 1933 primarily to control floods and improve the navigability of the Tennessee River. The taxpayer's investment in TVA now stands at better than $2 billion. By 1962 the total investment is expected to reach $3.6 billion of which $3 billion, or 80 per cent will be in the commercial electric power business. Industries and businesses, homes and farms in the TVA region are now geared to tax - exempt, tax - subsidized TVA power. They have a direct stake in the perpetuation of this particular phase of big government which serves privileged customers at the expense of all taxpayers. This amounts to a vested interest.

Proposals are now before Congress which would authorize TVA to finance itself without congressional appropriations or approval. If such proposals are adopted, TVA will come of age. It will be able to extend its tax - exempt activities at will, overrunning and absorbing any taxpaying electric company in its path. Ultimately it may supply other services or commodities "at cost," which means the taxpayers will have to bear most of its growing expense.

The Tennessee Valley Authority is a national problem. It reveals how little governments become big governments, which ultimately destroy private ownership of property and political liberty—and how this growth goes on almost unnoticed by the public at large.

The issue posed by TVA is not who shall furnish the country electricity, but what kind of government we wish to have. Representative government is not compatible with a centralized bureaucracy in which millions of people have a stake in "benefits" which that bureaucracy does out to a comparatively limited number of people for which we all have to pay.

He Preserves Wedding Gowns

NEW YORK (AP)—The tall slender bride was being married in her mother's gown, and she insisted that it be altered so that it would trail on the floor.

She was so fussy on this point, that John Van Drill finally asked her why.

"My fiancée is shorter than I am and sensitive about it," she explained. "So I am going to be married with my shoes off. Then I won't have to look down on him when I say 'I do.'"

"That's why the dress has to sweep the floor. I don't want my feet to show."

This is one of many odd incidents that have befallen Van Drill, who is known as "the wedding gown king." He is the nation's top specialist in cleaning and preserving wedding outfits.

His concern handled 30,000 gowns last year, grossed more than $1 million.

Van Drill, a short, dark-haired kindly man of 44, is a self-made specialist. He got a job in a dry cleaning plant at 14, after his father's death. At night he read everything he could find in the library on cleaning, dyeing and fabrics. In time he became foreman.

"The plant wouldn't allow us to clean wedding gowns — they were too risky," he recalled. So Van Drill cashed his war bonds, borrowed money from friends and went into business for himself.

"In former times most wedding gowns were made by brides themselves, by their relatives or by dressmakers," he said. "And they made them out of everything from wool blankets to flour sacks, table cloths and lace curtains."

By Hal Boyle

"One woman, asking us to be especially careful of her heirloom, told us it had been woven in a Union prison during the war by one of her ancestors, a Confederate soldier."

Many brides, of course, want to be married in the same gown worn by their mother and grandmother. But often the gown, left to hang in the attic, has fallen victim to mice, moths and moisture. The task of restoring it sometimes requires a miracle.

But the bride he remembers most is one he never met. She sent a brand new wedding dress, lovely and shimmering, to be preserved and sealed in foil.

With it came this note: "I want to keep it all my life. It has never been worn and never will be. My fiancée was killed in a crash on the way to our wedding."

Whose Antennae Is too Short?

Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt has been publishing an interesting series of articles about herself in "The Saturday Evening Post." They are, in many ways a postscript to her autobiography.

The particular article to which I refer contains some criticism of John Foster Dulles, our secretary of state, which requires examination. The matter comes up in relationship to Nehru of India, for whom Mrs. Roosevelt has considerable admiration. She says:

"... I cannot help but feel that Mr. Dulles fails to understand the feelings of many of the peoples with whom we must deal—that he lacks antennae with which to reach out and sense the attitudes of others at times when such attitudes may be of utmost importance in our struggle against communism."

The question, of course, is whether the secretary of state is a good-will ambassador or a finely-schooled strategist in international relations prepared by knowledge and experience to negotiate with other countries in the interests of the United States. That phrase, "in the interests of the United States," may not concern Mrs. Roosevelt too much because she is devoting the latter years of her life to the interests of the United Nations and there could be a conflict of interest.

It might be argued that a good negotiator is one who understands those with whom he negotiates, but it cannot be argued that he is any good if he is always conceding to the other side, always sacrificing the interests of his own nation.

In the long history of sacrificing the United States from 1933 to 1948, the record is so one-sided that surely some country in this world ought to be grateful to the United States. After World War I, at any rate, Finland was grateful and paid its debts. After World War II, such countries as India have shown no gratitude whatsoever for this country. Their attitude might be summed up in this phrase, "What have you done for me lately?"

The reason Mrs. Roosevelt desires Secretary of State Dulles to have antennae which reach out and sense the attitudes of others, is that the aforesaid others "may be of utmost importance in our struggle against communism." But these others, even after receiving such gracious aid at the hands of the government of the United States, in most instances have been neutral between the United States and Soviet Russia. Nehru, for instance, is neutral.

What particular value is it to have a secretary of state who gives up the taxpayers' earnings until it hurts and all we get for it is the kind of neutralism which Nehru produced in India and Sukarno produced in Indonesia?

Another generalization in this article that requires correction is the following:

"I remember when President Truman sent Gen. George C. Marshall to China during the critical days of the civil war, to attempt to persuade Generalissimo Chiang Kai-Shek to inaugurate governmental reforms in an effort to unite all factions..."

That was not General Marshall's task. General Marshall's task was to intervene in the civil war which was occurring in China between the government, which was our ally, and the Chinese communists, who were serving Soviet Russia.

General Marshall's activities were such that the Chinese communists were able to gain, after a long truce, a strategic position in Manchuria which resulted first in the conquest of China by Soviet Russia, one of the most serious defeats this country encountered in its history, and secondly, the Soviet direction of the Korean War which has proved so disastrous to us.

Mrs. Roosevelt is critical of Madame Chiang Kai-Shek. She says: "... I think that intellectually she understands what democracy means, but despite the fact that she went to college in this country she does not know how to live democracy."

Madame Chiang, Mei - Ling Soong, came to the United States when she was a young child, lived with Bishop Ainsworth in Macon, Ga., and then studied at Wellesley College, I have known Madame Chiang as girl and married woman nearly 40 years. She was a close friend of my first wife and there were times, when we were younger, when we saw each other daily. Madame Chiang may not confuse disorderly living with democracy, but she is as trained in the American concept of life as any girl can be who spends most of her childhood and youth in this country.

Diet and Health Tonsils and Adenoids Give Useful Service

By HERMAN N. BUNDESEN, M.D.

I THOUGHT the picture on tonsils and adenoids was pretty clear by this time, but my mail indicates it is not.

For a long time, many doctors recommended routine removal of tonsils and adenoids as a protective measure. However, in recent years we have become wiser and the general medical opinion has changed.

Have a Purpose

Both tonsils and adenoids, we now believe, have a definite value. Apparently, they act as a bulwark against childhood respiratory diseases.

Therefore, we are less inclined to remove them unless enlarged, infected tonsils and adenoids, frequent colds or some other obvious trouble indicates that an operation may be advisable.

The fact that your youngster has one cold after another does not necessarily mean that his tonsils are at fault. If there is no sore throat along with such colds, they may be caused by an allergic condition and have nothing to do with the tonsils or adenoids.

Definite Signs

If, however, the throat is sore with each cold, if the neck glands become enlarged or if there is a definite sign of tonsillitis, then your doctor probably will recommend removing them.

As a rule, doctors don't like to take them out until the youngster is about four or five years old. Since the tonsils and adenoids do offer the child protection, it is advisable, in most instances, to retain them as long as they are of value. Besides, when they are removed at this age, adenoids are apt to grow in again.

After the age of six or so, tonsils and adenoids probably are of little use to a child.

Not a Signal

I would like to stress, however, that the sixth birthday is not an automatic signal for you to call your doctor and arrange for the operation. If the tonsils and adenoids don't bother your youngster, your doctor will tell you that they might just as well remain where they are.

As a person grows older, the tonsils and adenoids will shrink and their functions will be virtually nil.

In the final analysis, it is up to your doctor to decide whether and when they should be taken out. Seek and follow his advice.

QUESTION AND ANSWER

M. T.: What causes the blood to thicken and is there any help for it?

Answer: There is no such thing as thickening of the blood. There is a disorder, known as polycythemia, in which the red cells become greater in number. An examination will determine whether or not this condition is present.

A DIPLOMATIC MOTHER tells how she restored peace between her two embattled daughters, aged 17 and 14. The 14-year-old had had a big day in the open air and was ordered to bed at the early hour of 9 to recuperate. When her "boy-friend" phoned at 10, the older sister told him his dream girl was asleep.

Next morning the "dream girl" was ready to murder her sister. "Now he'll think I have to go to bed every night like a mere child," she wailed. But the wise mother interpolated, "I heard what your sister told that young man. She said you had a terrible hangover. He really seemed impressed."

A look of unholy joy crossed the 14-year-old's face as she went over and threw her arms around her sister's neck!

When a book on cats hit the stalls, a dealer sold his entire stock in two hours and reordered 100 copies. The publisher wired: "100 more cats on way. Are your customers mice or men?"

Quiet Too Oppressive When Train Taken Off

RICHMOND, Va. (AP)—Residents of a Richmond suburb have solved one of life's small problems

Probably add up, guesses Grandpappy Jenkins, to a pretty expensive salad.

For years they were awakened by the 7 a. m. whistle of a train. The train was taken off. They suffered for a week and then arranged with a bus driver to blow his horn continuously while moving through the suburb.

The Nation Today

James Marlow

WASHINGTON (AP)—What is honesty in a government official?

Dr. Bernard Schwartz, the emotional law professor described as both brilliant and arrogant, has raised this question. It can stand steady raising in big government.

In some ways Schwartz handled himself like a juvenile. But he got results. At least so far.

He was hired by the House subcommittee on legislative oversight as chief counsel to investigate six big government regulatory agencies which were created by Congress and are answerable to Congress.

These agencies—and the 38 men who sit on their boards and commissions—make decisions affecting not only many businesses and broad areas of American life but involving billions of dollars.

They are the Federal Communications Commission, Interstate Commerce Commission, Federal Power Commission, Federal Trade Commission, Civil Aeronautics Board and Securities and Exchange Commission.

Their authority includes regulation of stock exchanges, freight rates, truck licenses; approval for new radio and TV stations and air routes for airlines; say-so on telephones and telegraph; watchdogging monopolies and trade practices; and approvals for power dams.

Schwartz, feeling some subcommittee members wanted a whitewash, could have waited until he was completely blocked and then resigned, made his charges, and publicly revealed what evidence he had.

Instead, to force committee action, he "leaked" documents to newspapers, made charges, talked of "gifts" and "favors" to members of the regulatory agencies by industry, and particularly the FCC.

In the end he was fired. But he focused so much attention on the subcommittee that now it can hardly duck an investigation, even if it wanted to.

In judging a government official's honesty, some lines are clear, some not so clear. There's no doubt an official is a crook if he accepts payments from a business or industry in return for a favorable decision.

But accepting a "gift" or "favor" is not necessarily crooked although it raises questions about the good judgment of an official and can shake public confidence in government.

For example: How can an official convince anyone that this decision—in favor of some group which wanted a TV station and gave him a gift beforehand—was purely coincidental and had not been influenced?

Less often mentioned, though, is the effect of pressure—from some member of Congress or the executive branch of the government—on an official of a regulatory agency. (Schwartz talked of pressures from the White House.)

An official who yielded to such pressures—by a ruling contrary to what he thought fair and just—could not escape the dishonesty charge even though he didn't get a dime out of it.

But what is pressure? Suppose a member of Congress called up an agency and expressed interest in the outcome of a pending case. Is that pressure? Inside the agency it might be considered so.

The agencies are sensitive to Congress. It's Congress which every year decides how much money they can have to operate. An angry member of Congress could cause a lot of trouble.

Congress is zealous in seeing that certain government officials—like the secretary of defense—rid themselves completely of any interest in a company with which the government does business.

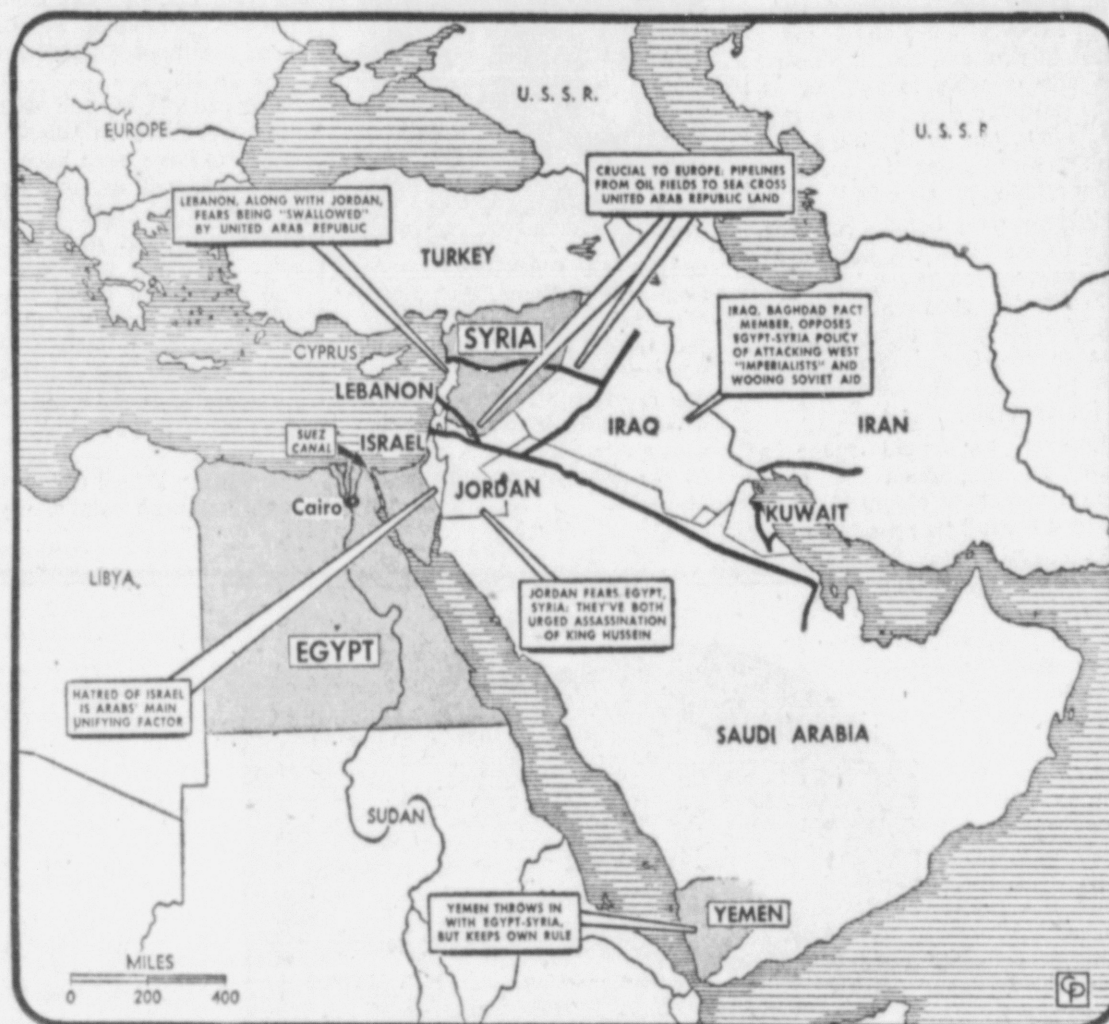

But members of Congress don't have to shed themselves of anything.

Cold Weather Due In Next 30 Days

WASHINGTON (AP)—Temperatures colder than normal will continue for the next 30 days east of the Continental Divide, the Weather Bureau predicts.

The widest variation from normal will be in the northeast quarter of the country, the bureau predicts and a warming trend should show up in the first half of March in the southeast.

Precipitation is expected to be subnormal in the far southwest and in the region of the Great Lakes.

ANOTHER ARAB CAMP FORMING—In the wake of formation of the United Arab Republic (shaded) by Egypt, Syria and Yemen, a second Arab camp is being pitched, by oil-rich Iraq and penniless Jordan. Their two kings, Iraq's Feisal and Jordan's Hussein, cousins, have initiated talks on the subject. If the union jells, Saudi Arabia might join. Also, if it jells, Iraq would leave the Baghdad pact, formed against Communism. The ultimate result would be two "Arab leagues," distrustful of each other. And snaking through it all are the pipelines which carry oil for Europe.

New Holland News

BY MRS. JAMES DOYLE

NEW HOLLAND — The Golden Rule Sunday School Class of the Methodist Church held its regular meeting in the church Wednesday.

A pot-luck supper was held in honor of the teacher, Mrs. Glenn Robinson for her birthday. The food was placed on a beautifully decorated table with a Valentine cloth and a center piece of a heart-shaped cake inscribed "Happy Birthday".

The members found their places at tables decorated with Valentine cloths and red and white nut cups with Valentine candy marked each place.

The meeting opened by the group singing "Let Jesus Come Into Your Heart." The devotions were in charge of Mrs. James Shipley. She gave an interesting reading on the origin of the "Mustard Seed Remembrance".

The business meeting was conducted by the president, Mrs. James Doyle. In the absence of the secretary, Mrs. Charles White, Mrs. James Shipley gave the report and Mrs. George Hott gave the treasurer's report. It was reported the Lions Club Supper which was held recently was a financial success.

The meeting closed with the group singing "Blest Be the Tie That Binds," and a closing prayer by Mrs. Glenn Robinson.

The group then sang Happy Birthday to Mrs. Robinson and Mrs. Shipley presented a gift to her from the class.

Mrs. Verne Gifford was in charge of entertainment. She conducted a Valentine contest and presented awards to Mrs. James Doyle and Mrs. Joe Satchell. She introduced Ansel Kirk Jr., who presented movies he took of the Rose Bowl Parade in January in California and interesting sights at Disneyland. Co-hostess with Mrs. Gifford were Mrs. Ansel Kirk, Jr., and Mrs. Elmer Post.

THE AMERICAN Legion Auxiliary Unit No. 477 held its regular meeting at the home of Mrs. Willard Lininger of Church Street.

The meeting opened by the group giving the Pledge of Allegiance to the flag. Prayer was given by Mrs. Lininger.

The business meeting was conducted by the president, Mrs. Irvin Funk. Mrs. Roy Steward gave the secretary's report in the absence of Mrs. Lawrence Hunter. The treasurer's report was given by Mrs. Oscar Plack. The correspondence was read by Mrs. Herbert Louis.

It was voted on to give a donation to the Heart Fund.

It was announced the unit would serve the dinner for the Lion Club's regular meeting March 6nd also for the Lions' executive meeting on March 31.

Due to the need of dish towels in their kitchen at the Legion Hall, it was decided to have a "dish towel shower" at the March meeting and each member is asked to bring one.

Memorial services were held by the president, assisted by Mrs. Willard Lininger, for the late Mrs. Charity Reeves.

The program was in charge of Mrs. Harry Heath. She read an article on George Washington. An article entitled "Honest Abe always Enjoyed A Laugh" was given by Mrs. Donna Blair. An article about The Great Seal of the United States entitled "What Every American Should Know About Symbolism" was presented by Mrs. Herbert Louis.

A delicious dessert course was served by Mrs. Willard Lininger assisted by Mrs. Wilbur Gillespie, Mrs. Carl Binns and Mrs. Marcus Cockerill. Two guests were presented. Mrs. Wayne Boyer and daughter Susan of Washington C. H.

Attorney, 27, Holds Mum on Fraud Case

YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio (AP)—After confessing his part in an alleged quarter-million-dollar insurance claims fraud, a young attorney has refused to tell all he knows, Mahoning County Prosecutor Thomas A. Beil said Sunday night.

Allen J. Swaim, 27, surrendered voluntarily to authorities last week and was cooperating "fairly well," Beil said, until one particular aspect of the investigation was brought up.

Swaim is "protecting someone," Beil charged, in refusing to discuss details of an insurance policy issued to a Frank Sexon in Columbiana last year. Sexon was really Paul E. Shade, 31, Beil said. She was a business partner of City Councilman John J. Tobin Jr., 29. The two were described by authorities as top men in the alleged swindle. Both have been missing since Jan. 5 shortly after the investigation started.

The Sexon insurance policy was used to collect more than $15,000, an accident which never happened, according to Beil. Tobin allegedly adjusted the claim and collected from his employer, the American Associated Insurance Co.

When the Sexon policy was mentioned, Swaim "clammed up," Beil said. Charged with obtaining money under false pretenses, Swaim admitted taking part in a $44,000 swindle when arraigned last Friday. He was held under a $25,000 bond for grand jury action. Beil said he would seek several sons including a doctor have been charged in connection with the alleged swindle.

Tearful Departure Taken by Burglar

BRIDGETON, N. J. (AP)—A would-be burglar broke into a lumber company office but left with tears in his eyes.

Police said the tears came from the gas which filled the office when the burglar tried to smash a handle from a safe. The gas was a built-in protection feature. The burglar went away empty-handed.

Burglar's Job Tough With Very Little Pay

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—A burglar here really worked for his $37 loot, to all indications.

Police say he apparently squeezed through bars eight inches apart on the basement window of a tavern, removed a door panel to get upstairs, climbed into the attic, cut a hole in the ceiling of a room where the safe was, and dropped down.

They said he then tried to push the 500-pound safe to the tavern door, but gave up. He got the $37 from a cash register and crawled out through a rest room window.

NONSCENTS—Looking out on a yard full of yard-deep snow in Albany, N. Y., this beagle finds his world all nonscents. (International Soundphoto)

DEAR MARY HAWORTH: My wife has been dead nine years. My children are grown and married. I am 51 years old. I work every day, but I own no property. Do I have a chance of finding another wife?

I am not looking for a beauty queen or a rich woman. Just want a plain old fashioned woman of good character, who wants a home and a husband and won't mind living with a man who can't buy her mink coats and Cadillacs.

I have had dates with probably 25 or 30 women in the last eight years, but they all dropped me when they learned that I am poor.

I am too shy, I guess; though I do go about—to church, movies and other places. But I can't seem to meet the right woman.

I think I have as many friends as any poor man, but nothing can take the place of a good wife.

I know other men and women in this community have the same problems that I have, but most of them wouldn't admit it.

DEAR P.J.: It isn't your lack of property, but your lack of confidence (or sound self-esteem) ing and such, nowadays. None of which is going to help your case, of course.

You suggest that you are "too shy" to win a good wife. But shyness, in the final analysis, is largely distrust and unfriendliness. Children are made shy by adversity, by consistently poor (or bad) treatment, in circumstances beyond their control. They are victims of environment; but adults who've reached your age have little justification for letting shyness cripple their human relationships.

There is a copybook maxim that says: "If at first you don't succeed, then try, try again." It fits your need like a glove. You must make a habit of courageous perseverance, in campaigning for the right helpmate.

But first and fundamentally, to succeed with women, you must believe in your worth as a person—judged in terms of human decency, not in terms of material assets.

In general, it is a man's wife who spurs him toward ownership, as a form of welfare insurance for the family. Perhaps if your wife had lived, you'd have property by now—with the children grown and married, and your expenses thus reduced; and with her drive, to spur you ahead. So think constructively about yourself, appreciate your human value, and confidently court the woman you want.

M. H. Mary Haworth counsels through her column, not by mail or personal interview. Write her in care of this newspaper.

Gatewood Circle Holds Meeting In Moats Home

Gatewood Circle of Grace Methodist Women's Society for Christian Service held its meeting in the home of Mrs. Harold Moats.

Mrs. Robert Gatewood, president, opened and presided over the meeting. Reports were given by Mrs. Donald Dodds, secretary, and Mrs. Leo Shaw, treasurer.

The group voted to finish paying the pledge to the Women's Society. Members discussed Church Day, which was attended by Mrs. Gatewood, and plans were made to assist in serving two dinners in March. Various items to sell for the Circle and the Women's Society were demonstrated.

Following the business meeting, devotions were led by Mrs. Clark Sheppard. Mrs. Hal Sumners played the accompaniment for the group singing of hymns. The members participated in responses to a litany.

The devotional topic, "Those Who Serve," was continued into the program which was conducted by Mrs. Sam Wilson. She presented a panel composed of Mrs. Dodds, Mrs. Shaw and Mrs. Harold Ross. Assisting the panel were Mrs. Sumners, Mrs. Gatewood, Mrs. William Lucas Jr. and Mrs. James Niles. The program and devotions were closed with a hymn and a prayer in unison.

Mrs. Gatewood read a newsletter from a Methodist missionary (her birthday twin) who works with youth in Japan.

Mrs. Wilson acted as auctioneer for a white elephant sale which was enjoyed by the group.

Mrs. Moats, with the assistance of Mrs. Donald Fowler, served delightful refreshments.

Uncle Sam Dips Into His Vast Hoard of Gold

Treasury Takes Loans From Ft. Knox while Awaiting Income Tax

By SAM DAWSON
NEW YORK (AP) — Uncle Sam's golden nest egg is helping him meet his bills while waiting for you to pay your income tax.
Tapping Fort Knox for 100 million dollars in emergency reserve gold so that new currency can be issued against it is another side to the complicated and often mysterious part that gold plays.
Important elements in the story of gold include the secret hoard of the Russians and how they use it from time to time; the amount that the United States keeps as legal backing to its currency; the dollar investments of foreign lands which theoretically could be turned into gold on demand; and the Treasury's, emergency gold reserve.

This reserve was once nearly three billion dollars. Now it's 400 million.

Federal spending is rising and tax collections will be inadequate until corporations make big income tax payments a month hence and individuals make theirs two months from now.

Treasury cash has fallen to 2½ billion dollars, a pretty slim margin. The federal debt is so close to the legal limit of 275 billion dollars. Borrowing can't help much unless Congress boosts the limit by five billion as requested.

Hence the Treasury's getting backing for new currency.

Uncle Sam isn't strapped for gold—and even if his cash runs low from time to time, his credit is still tops.

U.S. gold holdings are now 22½ billion dollars, half a billion more than a year ago. About 12 billion of this is earmarked for currency backing.

U.S. gold holdings are published daily, but Russia's gold is a well kept secret. Its hoard is believed to be second only to ours but far smaller. Top guesses put it at seven billion dollars.

U.S. gold output has dropped. Miners say that since the price hasn't risen from $35 an ounce since 1934 gold digging isn't profitable. Latest figures put U.S. gold production at 34½ million dollars a year, compared with 121 million dollars before the war. Meanwhile Russian production is believed to have been kept up.

Over Five Hours Spent before TV

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — The president of Westinghouse Broadcasting Co. says the average American family spends more time watching television than doing "any other waking activity, including earning a living."

Donald H. McGannon, WBC president, told the 10th annual Western Radio and Television Conference here the average television family spends five hours and seven minutes a day in front of its TV set. He claims there are 41 million sets in 82 per cent of the nation's homes. They are served by 530 stations.

Bread from Memory Like Mom Used To Make

DENVER (AP) — Tom Sekulich in his time has been a coal miner, a grain farmer and a cement maker. Now he's the bread baker for the family.

Every Saturday Sekulich, who is 82, rolls enough dough in his kitchen for bread for himself, his wife, his daughter and son-in-law and two granddaughters.

"He's never used a recipe," Mrs. Sekulich said. "He just remembers how his mother used to bake it."

People . . . Places . . . and Things

Round about Fayette County

By B. E. KELLEY

I am hearing from additional friends who are wintering (literally speaking) in Florida and they are thoroughly disgusted with the worst winter on record in the "sunshine state."

"Stay at home and keep warm," one of these friends writes in describing the cold, rain, snow and general discomforts they have been suffering for weeks—with the end not yet, apparently.

The last word I have comes from Mr. and Mrs. R. A. French, of near Jeffersonville, who are spending the winter at Winter Garden. They probably think the town is well named.

They enclosed a page from the Orlando Sentinel, showing pictures of many cattle lying dead in the fields, due to lack of feed and exposure to the rain and freezing temperatures. Few of them had any shelter and all grass and vegetation generally was "cooked" by early freezes. Several additional cold snaps have enveloped the region since that time.

The newspaper accounts state that unless the cold ceases without delay, upward of 275,000 cattle may be lost.

Although government agencies are rushing feed into the stricken area, many of the ranchers think they should have free feed, regardless of the fact they are able to pay for it, according to the newspaper reports.

Crop losses will reach high into the millions of dollars, and Florida fruit and vegetables will be scarce for months, reports indicate.

Flowers, shrubs, trees, fruits and vegetables in a large portion of the state were frozen during the extraordinary cold which swept in from the west. Usually the cold weather in Florida is less severe, of brief duration, and comes from the north.

FORTY YEARS AGO

The First World War was still raging, with American forces taking a more active part in the fighting on the Western Front. British forces shot down 17 German planes in one day. Our fighting planes were still few in France.

Russian war jockeying back and forth between resisting new invasion of German forces and agreeing to a separate peace, as the unstable government took charge of affairs in Russia.

The 750-acre Georgiana Glascock farm on the Prairie Rd., was purchased by J. L. Rothrock at private sale.

As result of blizzards and sub-zero temperature, the DT&I Railroad had 42 engines in shops for repairs.

Walter Patton, YMCA secretary, who was doing war work in France was in Paris for a few days rest. Germany was planning to throw in tanks and use a new kind of gas on the Western Front.

Five thousand Indians were in the U. S. Armed Forces in the World War.

Major Rell G. Allen was soon to be made a lieutenant colonel in France.

Fayette County Red Cross women were doing notable work, having finished over 800 pairs of socks 838 sweaters and many other articles for use of armed forces.

Scott Garage, Bloomington was threatened by fire, which was soon extinguished.

Bakers here faced closing due to sharp restrictions in use of flour. Forty-three out of 58 Fayette draftees were found physically fit for service.

Knights of Pythias Lodge held its 54th anniversary of the order at Pythian Castle here.

Four hundred attended father and son banquet held in gymnasium of YMCA here.

CINCY REDS PLAYED HERE

It was decidedly a one-sided score when the Cincinnati Reds played a local baseball team, on the Old Fairgrounds in 1869, or 89 years ago.

The score was 72 to 6, but everybody enjoyed the game regardless of the lopsided score.

It is recalled that Herbert Maynard, former resident, who spent many years in Waterloo, Ia., before his death, was the scorekeeper.

Youth Club Activities

TOWANKA GROUP

Towanka Camp Fire Girls were hostesses at a Valentine party at the home of their leader, Mrs. Robert Woodmansee.

Two purposes were served by the party: it was a social event and stood as one of the requirements needed for the girls to pass the Firemakers rank. The girls invited some of their schoolmates, made their own invitations and table decorations, planned part of the entertainment and helped to prepare and serve the refreshments.

Contests and games were enjoyed, with prizes going to Jeri Anderson, Phyllis Wallace, Diane Taylor, Naomi Holloway, Judy Meyer, Nancy Seyfang, Karen Woodman-see and Sharma Ware.

After the games the girls served refreshments, which also carried out the Valentine theme.

Mrs. Robert Wallace, assistant leader of the group, also was present at the party.

NOWETOMPATINMIN GROUP

Eastside School was the site of last week's meeting of the Nowetompatinmin Camp Fire Girls. The business meeting was not held, and the get-together was strictly a Valentine party. Cookies, ice cream and milk were served by Toni Ward, Margaret Williams and Peggy Shaw.

Valentines were passed out by

Many a Tickling Memory Held by Retiring Reporter

Editor's Note: Jane Eads, who has covered Washington from the woman's angle for 20 years, is swapping her typewriter for retirement in Florida. Her final column will appear Friday.

By JANE EADS

WASHINGTON (AP) — When I'm down on our island in Florida, whether it's dodging coconuts, barefooting it up the beach, watching the sun blend into the Gulf, or pounding my typewriter, I'll enjoy many a tickling memory.

Coming to mind will be the many sublime and ridiculous things that happened during my years as a Washington correspondent.

Interviewing a woman from Ceylon with diamonds in her nose and trying to look her in the eye. The blaze was blinding.

The parties given by the late Evalyn Walsh McLean, Washington's greatest, most extravagant and most eccentric hostess. Eight course dinners for the press, with precious china, crystal and silver on tables spread with cloths of gold topped with heirloom lace.

Parties at Perle Mesta's the "Hostess with the Mostess." Harry Truman used to play the piano at Perle's. Ike used to sing. The wag's toast to Speaker Sam Rayburn: "Here's to Sam — What a fine head of skin he has."

Looking back to the pre-war years: The public as well as expected guests jamming the weekly "at-homes" set aside by official wives to receive other official wives and the little old "biddies" who slipped sandwiches, tea cakes, after-dinner mints and even sugar cubes into bags to take home.

Square dancing in the East Room of the White House with Eleanor Roosevelt and her late brother, Hall Roosevelt, leading the figures, and the President enjoying the picture mightily.

Socializing at the Russian Embassy where the bartenders never know how to mix American firewater and you end up thick-tongued from washing down the caviar with that vodka stuff. Trying to pry story material from the "nyet" boys. They won't even tell you how many petit fours they've served. When party time's up, they blink lights all over the blinking place—an unsavory hint they want you to scram.

Miami Valley Hit By Foundry Strike

CINCINNATI — Picket lines are up today around Miami Valley plants whose Foundry Workers Union employees voted against a proposed new contract.

The vote Sunday, here and in Hamilton and Dayton, was "overwhelming," a union spokesman said. The offer came from the Miami Valley Foundryman's Assn. bargaining for 22 plants.

Hollan Washburn, union international representative, said, "The association made us no money offer. They did offer one extra paid holiday and some health and welfare improvements."

Townsmen Pray For Strike End

LAMAR, Mo. — Lamar residents resorted to prayer in seeking an end to a six-week strike at the Lawn Boy Co. plant, largest employer in this town of 3,300.

The town's 10 churches were filled as the worshipers heeded a plea from the ministerial association to pray for reconciliation of the plant management and the 350 members of the striking United Auto Workers.

The company, which makes lawn mowers, was shut down Jan. 3 by the wage dispute. Negotiations are at a stalemate.

Benson Appears Cautious On 1958 Price Supports

By OVID A. MARTIN
WASHINGTON — Secretary of Agriculture Benson is moving cautiously on price supports for 1958 crops of corn, oats, barley and grain sorghums—the raw materials for meats, dairy and poultry products.

His policies would appear to dictate a further downward adjustment in government price floors for these livestock feed grains. Surpluses of them are larger than ever before. There is room under the flexible support law to lower price props for these crops.

Benson has said that one major cause of overproduction has been incentives provided by the price supports.

But the administration farm chief recognizes that what he does with regard to prices for feed grains has repercussions in the field of livestock, dairy and poultry production.

When feed prices are low in relation to prices of livestock and livestock products, there is a tendency for farmers to expand production of the latter. At the present time, the price relationship is generally favorable for the livestock producer.

Any substantial lowering of feed grain supports at this time, insofar as it influenced market prices to drop lower, would make livestock production even more favorable. The result could be a step-up in production of hogs, milk, and poultry that would bring surpluses and depressed prices of these products.

Department experts said efforts are being made to arrive at price supports for the grains that would be designed to stabilize prices not only of feed but of livestock products as well.

Support rates normally are announced well ahead of the Spring planting season.

15 Ohio Valley Power Firms Facing Strike

DAYTON, Ohio — The possibility arose today of a mass strike against 15 power companies in the Ohio Valley.

It could have the effect of crippling electric service to thousands of homes.

Delegates from 30 locals of the Utility Workers Union of America (UWUA), concluding a three-day conference, Sunday voted to support employees of Ohio Valley Electric Corp.'s (OVEC) Kyger Creek power plant if they strike.

Employees of the Kyger Creek plant, just outside Gallipolis, are negotiating a contract and are scheduled to vote Wednesday on whether to strike.

The UWUA has said it hopes to picket parent plants of OVEC should the Kyger Creek workers strike. The Kyger Creek plant supplies power to the Atomic Energy Commission's plant in Pike County.

William R. Munger of Cleveland, regional director of UWUA, said successful picketing of the 15 parent firms—many in Ohio—could hamper their ability to supply electricity. But the companies have said they will continue to operate, with supervisory employees if necessary.

A meeting of OVEC and UWUA officials and a federal mediator is scheduled for Tuesday in an effort to settle the Kyger Creek dispute.

The dispute over an initial con-

Ohio College Cagers Facing Vital Games

Tilts This Week Seen Determining Leads in Conference Standings

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — A 46-game schedule, which could throw conference standings into a turmoil, faces Ohio's collegiate cagers this week.

Cincinnati's lofty Bearcats are gunning for the Missouri Valley title with a 9-1 record in their first campaign in the loop. They could just about wrap it up as they face fourth-place Drake (6-6) tonight, and sixth-place Tulsa (3-6) Saturday on the Queen City floor. The two tilts also offer Bearcat Oscar Robertson a chance to move up in the national scoring race.

Robertson, with 663 points in 20 games, is second in the national derby with a 33-plus average. He went for 40 against Bradley last week as the 'Cats beat back the second-placers, and 30 against Oklahoma State Saturday night. The two conquests avenged the only defeats on Cincinnati's 20-game record.

Wittenberg, pacing the Ohio Conference scrap with 11-0, entertains Capital (8-5) Tuesday, and Otterbein (6-1) Saturday. Akron, on Wittenberg's heels with 8-0 for the loop's only other unsullied record, visits Ohio Wesleyan (3-10) Wednesday, and entertains Muskingum (6-4) Saturday.

The game which could cause plenty of confusion comes up Thursday at Athens as Miami's Mid-American pace-setters (8-0) go against Ohio University's Bobcats (6-4). The 'Cats have won 10 of 11 at home, bowing only to Marshall (7-2), and could upset the Oxford crew. If they can do it, Marshall's Thundering Herd would move back into the title scrap, and could possibly tie for the crown by beating the Redskins at Oxford Feb. 26.

Also with a bearing on the Mid-American race, are games which send Marshall to Kent State, and Toledo to Miami, Saturday night.

Ashland, with a 2-6 record, gets a crack at both Mid-Ohio loop leaders, Findlay, and Wilmington, which are deadlocked at 8-8. The Eagles go to Wilmington Tuesday and to Findlay Saturday. Wilmington also must stage off third-place Defiance (6-3) in a Saturday affair.

The new Presidents' circuit could, tighten up Saturday, too. John Carroll, top team with 4-0, goes against Western Reserve's second-placers (3-1), and a Reserve victory would deadlock the race. At the same time Case Tech, on the bottom with 0-4, gets a chance to pull Wayne (1-3) into a last-place tie.

Ohio State, which can't seem to win on the road, gets a chance to further scramble the Big Ten standings. The fourth-place Bucks (6-5) go against second place Indiana (5-3) tonight at Bloomington, and then entertain the Hoosiers here Saturday. Ohio must win both to go around Indiana.

In last week's interstate games the Ohioans won 15 and lost 11 to turn the season's record to 178-107 against outside quintets, with a scoring advantage of 21,121 to 19,777.

On the unattached front this week the eye-catching games include:

Monday: Youngstown (18-5) at John Carroll; Wednesday: Steubenville (22-1) at St. Francis; Friday: Youngstown at St. Francis; and Saturday: Louisville at Dayton.

Stuebenville, statewide leader, has given up a chance to play in the NAAU tourney, pinning its hopes on a bid to the NIT at Madison Square Garden where the terrific Barons could get a shot at some of the nation's finest talent.

Sabina Cagers Win Tournament Opener

Sabina's Golden Eagles racked up their 18th straight win without a loss Saturday night when they overpowered Adams Township, 80-60, in their first game of the Clinton County, basketball tournament in Xenia.

Coach Beryl Carter's boys were never in serious trouble, although they were pressured to within a five-point margin by Adams in the second quarter. The Eagles then proceeded to come through with eight straight points before the halftime break.

Jim Kuen, 6-6, was high scorer for the game, netting 27. He was followed by the 15 marksmen of his teammate Jerry Bentley, and Hollingsworth of Adams Twp., also with 15.

Sabina faces Blanchester Monday night in the second round of the tourney.

Sandy Amoros Is Sold To Dodger Farm Club

LOS ANGELES (AP) — The Los Angeles Dodgers are shipping Sandy Amoros, 26-year-old left fielder from Havana, Cuba, back to their Montreal farm club in an outright sale.

The surprise move was disclosed Sunday. Amoros, a lefty, batted .277 last year. He was one of three Dodgers unsigned for the 1958 season.

Baseball Managers Speak

Oriole Weakness Plugged for 1958

By PAUL RICHARDS
Baltimore Orioles Manager
WAXAHACHIE, Tex. (AP) — Our weakness last year was lack of the long ball punch.

The addition of Larry Doby, the improvement of Bob Nieman and the extra year's experience for youngsters like Al Pilarcik, Anvd Pilarcik and Brooks Robinson should correct that. Doby, in particular, should help us win the close games we lost last year.

The strong points of the Orioles are defense and pitching, just as they were last year when we set a record of 80 errorless games. The pitching should be stronger with Don Ferrarese, the little left-hander, and Charlie Beamon, back after good seasons in Vancouver.

Also, our bonus boy, Jerry Walker, looked pretty good in the dozen or so games he worked last year. He was especially impressive in that 1-0 game against Washington. I really think the boy is going to help us as is Billy O'Dell, the young lefthander who seemed to mature last season after a hitch in the service.

Then there are our standbys like Connie Johnson, Billy Loes and Hal Brown and our good relievers like George Zuverink and Ken Lehman. I think Jack Harshman, whom we got from Chicago along with Doby will help us, too.

We still need some offensive punch in the infield. We lost some when George Kell retired but Robinson indicated last year he is about ready to take over at third base.

Bob Boyd, at first, is a very fine hitter and I'm hopeful that Jim Marshall, who slugged 30 home runs in the Pacific Coast League, can come through for us. Billy Gardner, our second baseman, is one of the most valuable players in the league. He is a fine fielder and a timely hitter.

Doby, Pilarcik and Nieman give us a fair outfield, and I look for Nieman to bounce back to the form he showed in 1956 when he hit .320. Jim Busby figures as our fourth man and both Joe Durham from San Antonio and Lenny Green from Vancouver look like potential big league outfielders.

Two rookies can help in the infield — Ron Hansen, a 19-year-old shortstop, and Marshall, whom we got from Chicago. We have a lot of youngsters coming up from our farm system.

Our pennant chance will be bright if the extra pitching blossoms and the punch materializes. In any case, I predict we'll surprise a lot of people.

Massillon Hunting New Grid Coach

MASSILLON (AP) — Massillon school officials start the search Tuesday for a football coach to succeed Lee Tressel, who resigned to accept the head coaching job at Baldwin-Wallace College.

L. J. Smith, superintendent of schools, said the school board would start accepting applications for the post Tuesday. No salary was announced but Tressel's yearly pay was about $7,000.

Among those being mentioned for the job was Chuck Mather, who says he is not interested. He coached Massillon to six state titles and three undefeated seasons before becoming head coach at Kansas University. He recently resigned at Kansas.

Eagles Win Team Event In Bowling

The Eagles, banging the maple all over the place, piled up a total score of 3,073, including a handicap of 282, to take the team event of the annual men's bowling tournament which got under way Sunday at Bowland.

Members of the champion Eagles team are Glenn Yerian, Bob Whitaker, Frank Lentz, Jerry Frye and Harvey Heironemus.

Along with the honor, the Eagles took down a cash award of $80 and trophies for the team and the men on it.

The Eagles took the team title after battle by 40 five-man teams that started in the afternoon and continued into the night.

Nine of the 40 teams shared in the prize money with purses ranging from $12.50 for No. 9 up to $80 for the winner.

The Eagles turned in games of 914-987-890 with handicap of 282 for total of 3073.

Not far behind was the Ron's Sohio team with 931-866-818 (423) total 3038.

Scores of the next seven teams were:

Farm Bureau 844-869-834 (396) 2943

Pennington Bakery 858-816-882 (405) 2941

Earls Blue Sunoco 844-848-848 (387) 2927

Spartans Hope To Solidify Hold on Lead in Big Ten

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Michigan State, hoping to solidify its first place hold in the tense Big Ten basketball scramble, moved in against arch-rival Michigan tonight at Ann Arbor.

The Spartans (6-3) can nurse their one-half game lead over Indiana (5-3) with a victory over the Wolverines (4-4). But Michigan, having slipped from first place to fourth in eight days, has other ideas.

Indiana takes on Ohio State (6-5) and needs a victory to keep pace. In the event Michigan beats Michigan State, an Indiana win means undisputed possession of the lead.

Two other games tonight find Minnesota (4-6) at Illinois (3-6) and Wisconsin (3-6) at Iowa (4-4). Purdue (6-4) and Northwestern (5-5) are idle.

Michigan State broke out of a first place tie with idle Indiana Saturday by clobbering Illinois, 69-56, in a game which saw the Spartans take a 21-2 lead and hold a 39-18 halftime advantage.

Ohio State returned to contention with an 85-76 victory over Michigan at Columbus; Northwestern edged Minnesota at Minneapolis, 76-75, and Purdue making a strong bid for the title, defeated Wisconsin, 81-76, at Madison.

MSU Coach Fordey Anderson sized up his team's easy victory over Illinois and poured in the reserves in order to have his regulars rested for the expected tussle at Ann Arbor tonight.

Johnny Green, MSU's Jumping Jack center, received a cut over his eye which required six stitches but will be in the starting lineup against Michigan.

"We were lucky," said Anderson after the game. "We had to play our first team only a little more than half the game. In a way it was good because we'll be fresh for Michigan. We did nothing exceptionally well, but the breaks we got in the first half gave us a chance to use our bench."

Should Michigan State and Indiana — defending co-champions — stumble along the way, Purdue is all set to step in and take over. The Boilermakers have four games left and three of them are home.

Counting tonight's games, Indiana has six games remaining with three on the road and Michigan State plays three of its last five contests on the road where it has been tough to win in the Big Ten.

Various College Cage Races Still Mixed as Season Wanes

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
With only three weeks remaining in the regular season, the basketball races in at least half a dozen major conferences are in a state of frenzied confusion.

So far only three teams are definitely in the NCAA postseason tournament. They are Connecticut, champion of the Yankee conference; Idaho State, Rocky Mountain Conference; and Oklahoma State, selected as an at-large team.

There are some heavy favorites, of course. Cincinnati, (9-1) which plays Drake tonight, is the choice in the Missouri Valley. Bradley is right behind with an 8-2 mark.

Kansas State, top team in the Associated Press poll, remains undefeated in Big Eight competition (7-0). The Kansas Jayhawks will try to keep their slim hopes alive tonight against Missouri.

Elsewhere there is nothing but uncertainty.

Atlantic Coast — A conference tournament at the end of the season will decide the NCAA bid. Duke, North Carolina, North Carolina State and Maryland are in a dogfight. Duke (9-2) appears to have the best chance.

Big Ten—Michigan State is first with a 6-3 record. Indiana (5-3) is second. The Spartans play Michigan tonight, and Indiana goes against Ohio State, so there could be a new leader by the end of the night's operations.

Mid-American — Miami of Ohio hasn't been beaten in league play yet and has won eight games. The Redskins still must play Ohio U., which has been beaten on its home floor just once this year. The game will be at Ohio U. Thursday.

Southwest—Arkansas is half a game ahead of Rice and Texas Tech in the wild scramble. Skyline—Wyoming and Colorado are just half a game back of de-

High Winds Stall Ski Jump Tests

IRON MOUNTAIN, Mich. (AP) — America's top ski jumpers, grounded two days by strong wind and sub-zero temperatures, waited today for a break in the weather that would permit the start of the national championships.

Postponement of the national meet Sunday followed cancellation of Saturday's scheduled invitation tournament. It was the first time in history that the weather interfered with jumping two days in a row.

Conditions permitting, the two meets were to be held simultaneously today.

fending champion Brigham Young.

Pacific Coast—A jumble. If any team looks good in the pack, it's California. After an 80-62 decision over Southern California Saturday, they play Stanford tonight. UCLA, another main contender, clashes with Washington.

In the Collegiate scoring race, Seattle's Elgin Baylor leads with an average of 34.4 points. Baylor has scored 654 points this year.

Cincinnati's Oscar Robertson is third with 31.3 points a game.

Notre Dame's Tom Hawkins, who flashed a mighty 33 points spurge in leading the Irish to a 89-70 upset win over North Carolina Saturday, is in the No. 7 spot. He has an average of 25.3 points.

Archie Dees of Indiana rounds out the top ten with 24.8.

Papa Bear Takes Over as Coach Again

CHICAGO (AP) — Owner George Halas of the Chicago Bears is going to make a coaching comeback at the age of 63 with some "new ideas" he's itching to put into practice.

The National Football League pioneer Sunday announced he will succeed Paddy Driscoll as head coach of the team he organized as the Decatur Staleys in 1920 and moved here in 1937.

It will be Papa Bear's third return to coaching. Halas celebrated his other two comebacks with championships in 1933 and 1946.

Two years ago, he handed the coaching reins to Driscoll, saying administrative and coaching duties were too much for him.

Driscoll piloted the Bears to the Western Division title in 1956 only to lose the playoff championship to New York. The Bears were preseason favorites last year but finished in the second division with a 5-7 record.

Halas said Driscoll would become administrative vice president in charge of team organization and added there would be no other staff changes. That means retention of assistant coaches Phil Handler, Luke Johnson, Clark Shaughnessy, George Connor and Sid Luckman.

"When I quit coaching," said Halas, "I couldn't think of any reason to induce me to come back. But sitting back and looking over the situation the last two years, I felt coaching methods in pro football were changing and I developed some new ideas. Now I want to try out those ideas."

BY RAY BRANDENBURG

Saturday morning: Cool and clear with emphasis on cool. Doris and Donald Wayne arrived Thursday eve, after a hectic flight. It was 3-year-old Don's first trip by air, and as the plane was coming down he said: "Look mommy, there's the world again!"

The local news stated last night that cattle in Florida was dying by thousands (estimated 275,000) due to lack of feed caused by the freeze killing all the grass. I haven't seen any dead ones, but have seen many poor enough to die.

Thane McCoy and I went to a stock sale last week. Never saw such a sorry lot of mongrel, bony, nondescript cattle and hogs in my life. Most of them so poor they had to drink muddy water to keep from seeing through them. Good old Fayette County hereford beefsteak is sure going to taste good. Just to make her feel at home Elma put Doris to washing the trailer windows.

Went fishing yesterday p. m. Of course Donald Wayne caught the fish. Went to the grove and picked grapefruit this morning. Don's first sight of orange and grapefruit groves.

Mr. & Mrs. Harry Thrallkill stopped in this morning on their way to Coral Gables, so we got a first hand report from the home front. The weather man reported one good thing about the last freeze, said "It couldn't hurt anything, because everything was already frozen."

The Buick is performing so wonderful I'm writing you to go out to BRANDENBURG'S and take a ride in a new Buick, you'll be thrilled no end.

I'm pretty busy keeping two women and a grandson occupied, so I'll sign off.

Democrats Eye Pump-Priming To Aid Economy

Roads, Housing Get Study; Tax-Cutting Proposals Also Talked

WASHINGTON (AP)—Senate Democrats picked highways and housing today as likely to offer the speediest opportunities to pump federal expenditures into the faltering economy.

Sen. Gore (D-Tenn.) announced the Senate Public Works subcommittee he heads will begin hearings Tuesday on proposals to accelerate the interstate highway program.

Sen. Sparkman (D-Ala.) said he is drafting legislation aimed at making it easier for people with moderate incomes to buy houses in the $10,000 to $15,000 bracket.

Sparkman's plans call for still further easing of down payment requirements in that bracket, and for other actions to make more housing credit available.

The weekend brought disclosure also that both the administration and Democratic House leaders are studying the possibility of tax cuts at some later date, and that the administration is working toward proposal of another $1 billion building program.

THE $1 BILLION, most of it from private sources, would go for construction of 150 to 170 federal buildings under a proposed revival of the lease-purchase plan. The government would take title after paying for their construction in rents over a period of years.

The government already is pushing a $636 million program involving 92 lease-purchase projects already approved.

Last week President Eisenhower proposed a $2 billion postal modernization program.

Within the government, the Treasury, the President's Council of Economic Advisers and other agencies were reported studying "preparedness" plans for tax reductions, but without expecting any need to use them to bolster the economy.

House leaders are talking in terms of a tax slash of more than $5 billion, if they think the economy needs it.

The total is expected to include proposals for income tax cuts in the low and middle income brackets, whole or partial elimination of World War II transportation taxes, some excise tax reductions, relief for business, and some revisions to end hardships.

Milledgeville Scouts Visit Filter Center

Milledgeville's Boy Scout troop 303 visited the Columbus Filter Center Saturday to observe modern civil defense facilities in action. The group was directed through the center by Air Force Sgt. Warren Wagner. Sgt. Wagner showed a movie, "Progress in Jet Airplanes," for the Scouts.

Troop 303's trip was financed with funds raised from a recent scrap drive.

Other places visited by the Scouts included the LeVeque-Lincoln Tower and the Central YMCA (where the boys enjoyed swimming, and in some instances worked on their swimming requirements for first class Scout rank).

On the capital city trek were Scouts Vernon Klontz, Roger Hodge, Larry Conley, Harold Rolse, Billy Creamer, Allen Bartruss, Russell Knox, Frank Yoakum, Glenn Rankin, Ricky Huff, Johnny Minton, Joe Lane, David Harris and J. P. Morgan. Adults going along were Scoutmaster Grant Morgan and Assistant Scoutmaster Edwin Rankin, Eugene Klontz, Donald Hodge, Robert Creamer and John Morgan.

Fog Hampers Hunt For Missing Plane

NAPLES, Italy (AP)—Fog and heavy clouds over the south Italian mountains and the Ionian Sea hampered the search today for a twin-engine U. S. Air Force transport missing with 16 military personnel aboard.

Officials said the possibility that the plane had been forced down in Communist Albania could not be excluded.

The C47, on a flight from Ramstein-Landstuhl Airport in Germany to Turkey, landed Saturday night at Naples to take on fuel and passengers. Thirty minutes after taking off for Athens it radioed that it has reached 6,500 feet and was switching to the Rome radio control. It never contacted Rome.

Camp Fire Girls Board Meets

Duty Assignments Given Directors

The board of directors of The Camp Fire Girls met Friday evening at the Washington Lumber Co. The meeting was called to order by the organization's president, Mrs. Winston Hill.

Activities of the past year were reviewed for the new board members by Mrs. Hill and past president, Mrs. Clark Sheppard. This was in conjunction with Mrs. Sheppard's annual report to The Campfire Girls National Council.

The application for the renewal of this area's charter was prepared. It will be forwarded to national headquarters.

The new board members were then assigned their duties: Mrs. Wayne Boyer, ways and means; Mrs. Jane Kerns and Mrs. Clark Sheppard, day camp; Mrs. James Tremlett, leader's representative; Mrs. Don Wood, program; Mrs. Richard Witherspoon, finance; Mrs. Mark Schafer, group organization; Mrs. Kenneth Kelley, adult membership; Mrs. Robert Brubaker, social; Mrs. Edmond Woodmansee, awards; James Shoemaker, camp supervisor; and Mrs. Thomas Gormley, public relations.

MRS. HILL, for the benefit of the new members, explained the difference between a member of the Campfire Girls Council and the members of the board. Any adult interested in promoting and encouraging the work of the Campfire Girls may serve as a council member merely by paying dues to this organization, she explained.

The member is then welcomed and may vote as a full fledged member at every council meeting, although no obligation is assumed as to attendance or the amount of active participation. However, a board member does have specific duties and obligation.

It was strongly urged that board members co-ordinate their activities closely and that every effort be made by all to acquaint other adults with the benefits to be derived for the young people through the Campfire program.

The meeting was adjourned after it was announced that the board will meet tentatively the third Friday of every month.

Mrs. Sheppard served coffee and colorful Valentine cookies.

Eight Accidents During Weekend

Only One Is Injured And One Driver Cited

One injury and one arrest resulted from a rash of eight auto accidents hereabouts over the weekend — many of them related to the snow-slick driving conditions.

Injured was Joyce Ann Garlinger, 16, who received treatment in the emergency room at Memorial Hospital Saturday for a leg cut.

She was injured when a car in which she was riding, driven by Raymond Springer, 18, of Columbus, was involved in a collision with an auto operated by Floyd W. Smith, 18, of near Greenfield.

Smith was travelling on Route 70, south, about 5 p. m. when he tried to pass and came upon Springer's car, headed the other direction. They collided head-on.

ARRESTED for failure to yield the right of way was Charles W. Wilson, 19, of 1143 E. Paint St., after a W. Elm St. accident about 6:20 p. m. Sunday. Wilson's car was involved in a collision at the Main St. intersection of W. Elm St. with a car driven by Ralph A. Barger, 48, of Harrison Rd.

Wilson will appear in court here later.

Cars driven by Donald Lee Sanders, 19, of Cincinnati, and Michael Ray McCoy, 16, of Route 5, Wilmington, were involved in a minor collision on the Anderson's Drive-In parking lot about 9:45 p. m. Sunday.

Guy M. Campbell, 40, of 321 Bereman St., was the driver of a car which skidded through the DeWitt Toben fence, Route 35, north, about 4 p. m. Sunday. Damage was moderate and he was not charged.

Another collision at Elm and Main Sts. about 7:30 a. m. Monday involved cars driven by James W. Smalley, 31, of 546 Warren Ave., and Delbert E. Rittenhouse of 502 Warren Ave.

Grouping Students By Ability Urged

INDIANAPOLIS (AP)—Dr. James B. Conant recommended today that the nation's high schools group their students by ability, wherever possible, so that they may proceed at a pace in keeping with their talents.

This, the former president of Harvard said, would apply to 15 or 20 per cent of the student body that is particularly gifted, as well as to the 10 to 15 per cent who aren't capable of keeping up.

Dr. Conant, in a speech at the 42nd annual convention of the National Assn. of Secondary School Principals, said the slower students should be taken out of the required courses such as English, history and mathematics.

Young Farmers Awaiting Dance

First Affair of Kind Held Here Last Year

Young farmers of the community, and their families, including the youngsters, today are looking forward to another square dance Wednesday night in the Farm Bureau auditorium here.

The first one of these affairs was held last year and it brought together around 30 couples, plus their children, some of whom got in on the dancing.

Frank Alexander, organization director for the Farm Bureau, emphasized that "this dance is for all young farmers and their families. . . they need not be members of the Farm Bureau."

For the occasion, he said, Darwin Bryan of Columbus, director of youth activities for the Ohio Farm Bureau, will be the "caller" for the dances, and added "he is considered one of the best square dance callers anywhere around."

The dance is being arranged by a committee made up of representatives of each of the county's ten townships. Mr. and Mrs. Albert Fields of Madison Township, are the general chairmen.
